Dear Parishioners,

Sometimes the Holy Day of All Saints is a day of obligation and other times not. The reason for this is that a number of years ago the bishops of the United States decided that if the day fell on a Saturday or a Monday then it would be too difficult to give the Holy Day and the Sunday each due attention. Thus, we have our current situation. This year the Feast of All Saints is on this Tuesday and is a day of obligation. What does this mean? It means that we are obligated to attend mass on the vigil or on the day itself. It also means that to purposefully miss attending mass is a mortal sin. Some people would say how can that be when one year it is a day of obligation and the next year it isn't. That is a valid question. I wish I had a better response. However, it is what it is. So, I hope to see all of you there for the celebration of All Saints.

Fr. Tom

Franciscan Nativity Festival

How, then, can they call on the one they have not believed in? And how can they believe in the one of whom they have not heard? And how can they hear without someone preaching to them? – Romans 10:14 It is with this admonition that we heartily invite you to share a nativity set for display at the annual Franciscan Nativity Festival coming December 2-4 at the Chiara Retreat Center in Springfield. Perhaps you have a beloved nativity set that holds great value to you because of its special story. We would very much like to include your set so if you are interested in allowing it to preach the wonder and joy of Christ to all who see it, please contact the Chiara Center at 523-0901 or via e-mail to dfrachey@chiaracenter.org so we can send you a registration form prior to the November 9th deadline. You can learn more about the directions to the Chiara Center and find the times for the Nativity Festival by visiting our website at www.chiaracenter.org.

Priesthood Sunday

In 2003, the USA Council of Serra International (the organization whose mission is to foster and affirm vocations to the priesthood and vowed religious life) organized the first Priesthood Sunday. They felt there was a great need to honor those who are called to be priests. Priests wear many hats in the Church, yet the most important is to be a mediator between God and us. Without priests, there would be no one to transform the bread into the Body of Christ, no one to absolve us of our sins, no one to marry us, bury us, and the list goes on... Please remember our priests in your prayers today.

Gracious and loving God,

We thank you for the gift of our priests.

Through them, we experience

your presence in the sacraments.

Help our priests to be strong in their vocation.

Set their souls on fire with love for your people.

Grant them the wisdom, understanding, and strength

they need to follow in the footsteps of Jesus.

Inspire them with the vision of your Kingdom.

Give them the words they need to spread the Gospel.

Allow them to experience joy in their ministry.

Help them to become instruments of your divine grace.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,

who lives and reigns

as our Eternal Priest.

Amen.
