Dear Parishioners,

This is the time of year of decisions. I am talking about the registration for our parish school. It is a decision that can be difficult for some families. I pray that this year it is not a hard decision at all. Catholic education is one of the greatest gifts that parents can give to their children. It is a gift that any sacrifice should not be too staggering to handle. However, if it is, realize that this is a parish school and the parish will be there to help you. Do not let finances keep you from giving your children this great gift of a quality Catholic education.

Fr. Tom

Rest in Peace

Please pray for the repose of the souls of Betty Graham, parishioner, and Fr. Roy Bauer, retired priest of our diocese. May God grant them eternal rest.

Women's Day

"Miracles of Our Faith", Saturday, August 26,

8:00 am—1:30 pm, Sts. Peter and Paul Parish, Collinsville. Award-winning author and Catholic radio host Elizabeth Ficocelli will fascinate us with the wonders of Eucharistic miracles, the stigmata, incorrupt bodies, levitation, apparitions and visions, weeping images and statues through storytelling and pictures. She can be seen and heard frequently on Catholic radio and television, including guest hosting live national radio programs such as "Catholic Connection" and "Kresta in the Afternoon". She has published over 15 books created to inspire and teach our Catholic faith. First and second class relics of Saints will be on display for veneration. Bring your favorite rosary and/or other religious items to touch to these relics. Among the relics are a piece of Mary's veil, a piece of the true cross of Christ and a first class relic of St. Padre Pio. There will be Eucharistic Exposition and Benediction, Prayers of the Rosary, Lunch and shopping. Attendees must be over the age of 13—$20 to participate (with or without lunch). Flyer in parish office.

Sanctity of Life

"The victims of this (throwaway) culture are precisely the weakest and most fragile human beings—the unborn, the poorest, the sick and elderly, the seriously handicapped, etc.—who are in danger of being 'thrown away,' expelled from a system that must be efficient at all costs.....It is necessary to raise awareness and form the lay faithful, in whatever state, especially those engaged in the field of politics, so that they may think in accord with the Gospel and the social doctrine of the church and act consistently by dialoguing and collaborating with those who, in sincerity and intellectual honesty, share—if not the faith—at least a similar vision of mankind and society and its ethical consequences."

'He Walks Beside Us'

"... Jesus himself drew near and walked with them, but their eyes were prevented from recognizing him." Luke 24:15-16

Sometimes we are like the disciples on the road to Emmaus. We are not always aware that Jesus walks beside us. While his image may not be readily apparent, the signs are everywhere. He can be seen in the face of the beggar on the side of the road. He lives and breathes within all victims of violence, the widows, the orphans, the poor and marginalized of this world. He pleads with us not to turn our heads away. He asks us to respond to those in need of comfort, solace and support. In a world filled with many distractions, Jesus asks us to open our hearts, turn our eyes and recognize his presence.
