Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate our School and PSR second graders first communion. It is a very special day for the kids, their families, and for our parish family. The first time to receive our Lord Jesus in the Holy Sacrament of the Eucharist is a life changing moment for all of us. For the kids it is a time that they have been preparing for this entire year. All of their hard work and study culminates in that moment when they say "Amen", "I believe" for the first time. They are united with our Lord in the most powerful way possible. For their families it is a time of great pride in their children for taking this important step in their spiritual lives. For all of us here at OLQP it is a moment when we realize that we have these young parishioners becoming a greater part of our parish family. Let us keep them in our prayers and celebrate with them this sacred moment for them and for us

Fr. Tom
