May, the month of Mary!

Day/time yet to be determined, but possibly Wednesday's after 6:30 pm Mass.

Workbooks are $19.95 each. Workbooks will need to be ordered soon. If you are interested, please call Linda Heinz, 618-377-5471 with the number of books you need by Monday, May 21.

Dear Parishioners,

This article may seem familiar to you. It is something that I repeat quite regularly at this time of the year. The summer is right around the corner and that means that many of us will be taking summer vacation trips. My message is that on these trips we should not take a vacation from going to mass on Sunday. When we are travelling it is important that we plan for the vacation and that means that we also plan for getting to the nearest church when we arrive at our destination and when we are on the road. One of the best ways is to check out the web sites that list all mass times throughout the United States. There are many to look at and by checking them out before you leave on your vacation you will be able to fulfill your Sunday obligation.
