Precious Blood

On this solemnity we focus our attention on the Body and Blood of Christ. We listen to the story of the renewal of the old covenant, which Moses sealed by splashing the blood of animals on the altar of sacrifice, as well as on the people. Jesus, whose blood is the blood of the new covenant, shed that precious blood on the cross, saving us from sin and promising us everlasting life. Blood is the life source that courses through our bodies. The precious blood of Christ is the life source for our spirits. Today may we, like the psalmist, offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving to the Lord, whose Body and Blood strengthen us to bring the Good News to everyone we meet. Copyright (c) J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

Food For The Journey

While they were eating, he took bread, said the blessing, broke it, and gave it to them, and said, "Take it; this is my body." Mark 14:22—In many, if not all, religious traditions, the sharing of a meal is a celebration rich in symbolism. The Eucharist and Passover are bearers of the shared memories of a people. God reveals himself through the communal ritual of drinking and eating. Through the Eucharist, we believe that God remembers himself for us. He is brought to our midst and once again nourishes us with his very flesh and blood. We consume his life, and he becomes, very intimately, a living part of us. When we leave the sacred table and reimmerse ourselves into the seemingly mundance routines of life, we bear God within us—a God who lived, died and rose for us so that we might live the same mystery for and with each other. The body and blood of Jesus is indeed food for our journey through life.
