'Being Completely Honest'

"Let your 'Yes' mean 'Yes,' and your 'No' mean 'No.'

Matthew 5:37

I remember a couple of years ago becoming aware that I was not being completely honest. I would occasionally bend the truth ever so slightly to make myself look better. Once I became aware of it in myself, I began to realize how common it was in the world. We all like to think of ourselves as honest people. But lying is so much of a human problem that there are many Old Testament injunctions against it. Jesus, too, counsels us to be truthful and honest in all things so that our "yes" truly means "yes" and our "no" means "no." Today, see how many times you are being less than completely honest with others and with yourself. Have we "shaded" the truth for our own benefit? Are we willing to recognize our sins and culpabilities? Then make a point to become truly an honest person in the big things and the small.

Consider This . . .

How does our parish attract inquirers each year who consider becoming Catholic? The short answer is you! When any parish has many inquirers year after year, it is the fruit of the Holy Spirit as parish members open their hearts to welcome others. Members of a welcoming and evangelizing community take seriously their call to share the Divine message of salvation. It happens in parish families, in the workplace, in gatherings with friends and neighbors, and in daily contacts. Give thanks to God as he continuously strengthens each of us who seek to do his will in offering a gentle, humble, and clear welcome to the Catholic faith.

"Go out into the whole world and proclaim the Gospel to every creature." (Mark 16:15) Please contact one of our RCIA Coordinators if you know of someone who might be interested in RCIA. --Tim Zacha @377-5725, ipray2change@sbcglobal.net or Marie DeClue @377-5593, rejoy128@gmail.com
